

MEDIA RELEASE

For immediate release: February 15, 2008
For additional information, please contact:
Carolyn West Price 410-461-9399

Cahn named Baltimore's only "Legal Eagle" Again & Selected as National Panelist

Baltimore, MD—Announced today by the publishers of Franchise Times Magazine, a national franchising publication, David L. Cahn, Esquire, is recognized for the third consecutive year as Baltimore's only attorney named as a "Legal Eagle." In 2006, he was the only Legal Eagle in the state.

The designation requires client nominations and recognizes attorneys for superior client service and experience in franchising.

Founder of Baltimore-based Franchise & Business Law Group, Mr. Cahn is the Chair of the Maryland State Bar Association's Franchise Law Committee and also a frequent presenter of workshops and seminars on franchising.

This May, he will be part of a panel presenting a seminar called "Are You Ready to Franchise Your Restaurant Business?" at the National Restaurant Association's annual convention and expo in Chicago.

A Baltimore native and resident, Mr. Cahn earned his Juris Doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania and his bachelor's degree from Stanford University. He is admitted to the Maryland and District of Columbia Bar.

Founded by Mr. Cahn in 2004, Franchise & Business Law Group is a supplier member of the International Franchise Association.

#